

PRESS RELEASE

Appointment of Public Service Commission Members

A new Public Service Commission has been appointed to serve for the period 1st September 2009 to 31st August 2011. The members appointed by the Governor acting in his discretion are Rev Cecil Weekes, Mrs Vida Lloyd Richardson and Mr Fabian Proctor. Mrs Verna Fahie and Mrs Ursil Webster Brooks have been appointed as members by the Governor acting after consultation with the Public Service Staff Associations. Rev Cecil Weekes has again been appointed as Chairman by the Governor following consultation with the Chief Minister.

The members attended at the Governor's Office on 26th August 2009 and took their oath of office before Acting Governor Stanley Reid. The oath included a pledge by each member to serve without fear or favour, affection or ill will. The significance of this was stressed to members by Acting Governor Stanley Reid in a short meeting with the new members following the administration of the oaths. Mrs Lana Horsford-Harrigan Director, Human Resource Management, who serves as Secretary to the Public Service Commission, was also in attendance.

The outgoing members of the Public Service Commission are Mr Allister Richardson, Miss Marie Horsford and Mr Darwin Hazell. The outgoing members have been thanked for their devoted and invaluable service which assisted in ensuring the smooth and proper functioning of the Anguilla Public Service.
